REVISED EXHIBIT LIST DEADLINE FOR VIRTUAL EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

On October 2, 2020, Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, joined by Commission Staff; the Maryland Office of People’s Counsel; the United States Department of Defense and all other Federal Executive Agencies; Montgomery County, Maryland; Walmart Inc.; and the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (the “Requesting Parties”), requested that the parties in Case No. 9645 be given until noon on Friday, October 9, 2020, to submit their exhibits and exhibit lists. Because Monday, October 12, 2020 is a State holiday, and Commission offices will be closed, and in order to provide adequate time for the Commission to process the exhibits, the Commission hereby extends the exhibit deadlines to 5:00 pm on Thursday, October 8, 2020.

The Requesting Parties also ask that they be permitted to supplement their exhibit lists after the hearing starts on Tuesday, October 13, 2020. Continuing its practices from other virtual evidentiary hearings, absent a reason to exclude an unanticipated exhibit, the Commission will be flexible and allow its introduction. The Commission’s general expectation is that the parties anticipate the exhibits that they will file to the best of their ability, and it appreciates the good faith efforts the parties have pledged to make their exhibit lists as complete as possible.

All other aspects of the September 29, 2020 Supplemental Notice of Virtual Evidentiary Hearings,¹ including the noon Wednesday, October 7, 2020 deadline for parties to submit their participant lists, remain in effect.

By Direction of the Commission,

/s/ Andrew S. Johnston
